

Leopoldo Anguiano

December 31, 1969 - May 10, 2008

Obituary of Leopoldo Anguiano Ocala Mr. Leopoldo Anguiano Jr. died on Saturday, May 10, 2008 at Legacy House. He was a native of Houston, TX and had lived in Ocala for over 20 years. Leo loved life and was an avid electric guitar player and especially loved Bon Jovi. He was also a lover of art and books, particularly Ernest Hemingway. He was very simple and loved to eat at Harry's on the Square. Enchiladas were his favorite food and blue was his favorite color. His favorite saying was Nah, That's alright. Leo had plans to be an electronic engineer. He was loved and will be greatly missed by those who survive him, including his mother, Josephine Velez of Ocala; father, Leopoldo Anguiano Sr. of Harlingen, TX; sister, Norma Linda Mince (Danny) of Harlingen, TX; sister, Abigail Hickman (Joel) of Ocala; maternal grandfather, Justo Garcia of Ocala; and paternal grandmother, Ester Anguiano of San Antonio, TX.

Tribute Wall

“ In loving memory of my brother. It has been 18 years since you left us, and you are truly missed every single day. We find peace knowing you are no longer suffering or in pain. We love you so much, and one day we will see each other again.

You will always remain in our hearts, and we will forever cherish the great memories we shared with you. Every time we listen to Bon Jovi, we think of you and smile through the tears.

Forever loved and never forgotten.

Love always,

Mom, Norma, Abby, Priscilla, Felisha, Daniel, Aerial, and all of your great-nephews.
