

Lewis Haber

February 16, 1944 - June 17, 2025

Lewis Haber, 81, passed away peacefully on June 17, 2025, in Ocala, Florida, surrounded by family. Born on February 16, 1944, in the Bronx, New York, Lewis moved to Miami as a young boy, where he grew up and later met the love of his life, Valerie. They married in 1966 and shared nearly six decades together, raising four children: David, Devin, Bridget, and Darren.

A successful and driven salesman, Lewis built a life full of love, laughter, and resilience. In 1980, he moved his family to Colorado to pursue new opportunities, and later relocated with Valerie to Lee's Summit, Missouri in the late 1990s before retiring to Ocala.

Lewis was a passionate sports fan who remained loyal throughout his life to the New York Yankees, the Miami Dolphins, and the Miami Hurricanes. His enthusiasm for the game—and the joy he found in cheering on his teams—was something he shared proudly with his family.

He is survived by his beloved wife Valerie; his children David, Bridget, and Darren; his grandchildren Taylor, Dominic, Lucy, and William; and his great-grandson Tyren. He was preceded in death by his cherished son Devin.

Lewis will be remembered for his deep love for his immediate and extended family, his generous spirit, and his enduring strength.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to a cause or organization meaningful to you, in Lewis's memory.
