

Lillian Taub

May 5, 1926 - December 5, 2020

Lillian Taub (Lily) was born on May 5th, 1926, in New York State, on a little family farm. She loved to run around in nature, listening to the chirping birds and smelling the wildflowers.

She enjoyed singing atop the chicken coop and dancing through the fields. She also enjoyed playing the upright piano. After attending Ellenville high school, she met and married a City Slicker named David Taub, on April 5th 1944. They had a boy and a girl. Their boy, Fred, lived until he was 72. Fred's wife, Pattie, their daughter Jillian and her husband David, currently live in Maine. Their daughter, Annette, has been living in Northern California for over 40 years; "Thirty-two of those years with husband, Terry." David and Lillian moved to On Top of the world about 30 years ago.

Prior to moving to "On Top of the World" Lillian worked at Gulf American Corporation as Vice President of Deed and Title.

Together, they satisfied their dreams of travelling all over the world in their retirement.

Lillian lost David to lymphoma almost 20 years ago. A few years after David's death, she met a very kind widower, George, on Valentine's Day, who she kept company with her regularly, up until they moved to Bridgewater Park, where they ultimately lived in different buildings and lately, could only speak by telephone.

When she fell and broke her hip last month, all the vitality left her. She was ready to be with the love of her life, David, once again. Her soul flew to him on December 5th.
