

Linda Claire Heppenheimer

February 11, 1950 - February 13, 2026

Linda Heppenheimer, age 76, passed away peacefully on February 13, 2026, surrounded by her friends at Grace Davis Hall in Ocala Florida where she has been very well cared for in her prolonged decline. Born in the Bronx, New York and raised in Albertson New York before relocating with her parents to Ocala Florida fifty-two years ago. Linda built a life defined by devotion, dedication, and a deep love for her Church and community. Linda worked for many years as an accountant, earning a reputation for her reliability, hard work and attention to detail. She retired as a clerk of the Court after 25 years of service. Outside of her professional career, Linda devoted countless hours to the Church Choir and charitable efforts. She valued above all else all the efforts of the church and camaraderie she shared with fellow parishioners. This paramount part of her life nurtured her deep faith and significant friendships.

She is survived by her cousins Miriam Phalan, Jean Campbell, Susan DeThomasis, John Meyer, Gerard Meyer, Neil Gallagher, Kevin Gallagher, and Danial Gallagher.

She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Herman Heppenheimer III and Marion McGrath Heppenheimer; five loving aunts and one uncle; her cousins Collete Burke Neal, Joan Raggi, Lorraine Raggi Frank, James Meyer, and Mary Ann Meyer.

Linda will be remembered for her tenacious character, strong work ethic, love of God, She will be deeply missed and remembered by those who knew her.
