“ Mel, Jim and Family, We were so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. She is at peace now. It is now our wish for you, the living, to find some peace. Your mother must've been so proud of the llives you're living! She died knowing she was loved! The most a mother could ask for! Please take comfort in that. Love you guys!

“ It is never easy even when expected. They say time heals. I wish that were true. Time helps us remember fondly those wonderful times shared with this great lady. Though the years and miles separate us we are forever together in heart and hearth. From my family to yours please take comfort that Aunt Lois and Uncle Gordon rest together with the Savior she lived so dearly. God Bless you all. Jim and Rita Van Natta
