“ I think of Mrs. Lottie all the time- she was such a big part of my childhood and young adulthood. As neighbors, I lived close by to her and Mr. Cecil and spent all my free time at their home for years. They were like my grandparents. It broke my heart to see her move to Chattanooga but I knew it was for the best to be near her family after Mr. Cecil died, However, I lost contact with her after then. Just Recently, saw see had past away. She loved her Family, Friends, and her Church very much and was such a sweet woman.
