“ We will be saying goodbye to a very special, wonderful, loving man on Saturday. Although he is already with our Lord, we need to say "Goodbye." I will miss you, Uncle Jackie. You taught me how to swim and how to water ski. You were always there for me and I love you with all my heart.

“ Jack, I don't remember a time that you didn't greet me w/ a smile and a good word. I was always glad to see you and talk to you. I know you leave this world of pain and suffering for a world of golden gates and joy beyond belief. I'm happy for you. But I for one will miss you, your warm smile, kind words and gentle handshake. I'll always remember you as a blessing to the people around you. May your rest in peace in the arms of our Savior. Until we meet again.

“ I didn't get a chance to see you as often as I would have liked to, but please know that you were a great man one that I admired and deeply respected! I remember all the good and fun times I shared with you. One memory in particular stands out... Jumping off the big bridge at the creek and you having me drink some of that sulfer water. How you would hold me in the air by my feet, i also remember bringing my daughter Heather to meet you when she was only 4 months old, we took her to the pond by your house to see the "stucco" man you made, we set Heather on its arm and it broke... Hahaaa, I put the arm back on it and never told you about it, sorry! You will surely be missed and I will forever more remember you! You are the best grand dad us kids could ever have! Watch over us and when you see my mama give her a hug from me! Rest in peace, until we meet again! Love you grand dad very much!
