

Louise Carmody

September 26, 1922 - March 15, 2012

Obituary of Louise Carmody Louise Homer Weaver Carmody, age 89, passed away peacefully at Haven Hospice in Gainesville, Florida, on March 15, 2012 after a recent illness. She was born September 26, 1922 to Edith and Homer Weaver in Jacksonville, Alabama. She attended Jacksonville State College where she studied Education. She had a passion for good cooking and was celebrated by her sons-in-law in their memories of her famously delicious Southern Fried Chicken and Pecan Pie. Living in Ocala, Florida for 50 years, she was a devoted member of the First United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Women's Club. Dancing and playing bridge brought fulfillment in her retirement years. For the past two years, she was a resident at Azalea Trace in North Florida Retirement Village. The family is so grateful for the personal care provided to her, and all of the daily little activities, music and special moments given from loving hearts of a devoted staff. She was preceded in death by her sister, Elizabeth Weaver; husband, Robert Carmody; daughter, Janice Elizabeth Yarbrough; and former husband, John Henry Yarbrough. She is survived by her sister, Frances Weaver Logan and brother, Bill Weaver, both of Atlanta, Georgia; children Nancy Yarbrough of Ocala; Dan Yarbrough of Ocala; Pamela Monaco (John) of Gainesville; and grandchildren Alexandra Monaco and John Monaco, Jr. of Gainesville. A gathering of friends will take place at the Roberts Funeral Homes Bruce Chapel East 2739 SE Maricamp Rd (352) 732-9944 on Saturday March 24th from 12-2PM With services to follow at 2PM. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations to be sent to the Alzheimer's Association (alz.org) to send condolences (WWW.robertsfuneralhomes.com)
