

Louise Williams

April 12, 1925 - September 18, 2015

Obituary of Louise Williams Louise Williams passed away on Friday, Sept. 18, 2015. Born April 12, 1925 to Pearl & Roy Oxner of Columbia, SC, she moved with her parents, brother Jim and sister Asa to Ocklawaha, Florida in 1929. She married Jim Williams of Ocala in 1944 and was the loving mother of three children, Kerry (deceased), Laura & Jim. She's also the grandmother of Sara Slider (Kerry), Dave Arnold, Anna Roth & Drake Arnold (Laura & David), Leena Williams, Diana Torres, Hunter Williams & Van Williams (Jim & Diana) and great grandmother to Adeline Roth & Wade Roth. A 70 year member of 1st United Methodist Church, she was involved in countless projects that helped people all over Ocala and Marion County. She was a woman of uncommon intelligence, perception & discipline, playing a pivotal role in all facets of her husband's varied & successful career. All the while she was raising her children with loving attention, she was also involved in serving her friends, her church & her community with compassion and humility. Such was her diligence, that she even found time late in life to go back to college, earning a degree (cum laude) from American University at the age of 62. During her long life here & in her 71 year marriage, she earned the respect, admiration & love of all who came to know her.
