“ It’s taken me awhile to what to say here but nonetheless I feel I need to share something that many of you don’t realize and that even right up to end Mom was always thinking of everyone else and worrying about her family.

I often assured her everyone will be ok when you leave this earthly realm and move on.

Her and I didn’t often see eye to eye on things, but somehow we would manage to get past our stubborn personality differences and find a “middle ground” and apologize when things settled after a disagreement. Mom not only was there for everyone of her 7 children but family and friends who were in need. She didn’t have a lot but she shared what she had. Including food, money, and a safe place for the weary and those who were alone and in need of a welcoming meal or cup of coffee.

When I was having hard times she would always be there for me and my children no matter what the issue was. I never could have survived being a single mom if it weren’t for her and my little sister helping me with childcare. In the end it was difficult as she was stubborn and feisty and fiercely independent. When her ability to carry out her daily tasks herself due to her aging body I was glad I could be of service even though she would say “I hate to bother you Gail but I need your help today.”

I sat at her bedside in her final hours and played a few of her favorite songs and told her we will be ok to go be with your family and I held her hand and prayed the Our father for her to let her know I still remembered how. May you forever live in peace and joy Mom! ❤️

“ The last time I was able to be with you I asked so many questions , you were a great story teller. We shared laughs, meals, shopping and even some prayers. We knew our time was short but we didn't speak of it , we just shared the time we had and lived in the moment . I miss you so much ! Until next time Grams. 💕

“ As we look back over time
We find ourselves wondering
Did we remember to thank you enough
For all you have done for us?
For all the times you were by our sides
To help and support us
To celebrate our successes
To understand our problems
And accept our defeats?
Or for teaching us by your example,
The value of hard work, good judgment,
Courage and integrity?
We wonder if we ever thanked you
For the sacrifices you made.
To let us have the very best?
And for the simple things
Like laughter, smiles and times we shared?
If we have forgotten to show our
Gratitude enough for all the things you did,
We're thanking you now.
And we are hoping you knew all along,
How much you meant to us.

“ *I have MANY memories of my aunt❤️
One from growing up was that you knew you were getting powdered milk instead of "real" milk when visiting 🤔🤔🤔 One reason, to this day.. I don't drink milk, and can have a meal without any liquid
😊
Another was her bed always had clothes on it.
I said, Aunt Lu.. how do you sleep?
She replied: I only need half the bed. And when that side is dirty, I move the clothes to the other side 🤔🤔🤔
When visiting her home in Dyer.. we always yelled/called for her.. by saying(yelling)
Auntie Woo-hoo❤️❤️
And lastly.. you knew if there was a group of people/family in conversation.. Aunt Lu would certainly throw some type of sex talk into the conversation 🤔🤔🤔🤔
And now.. Ill miss our phone calls☐☐ Rest in peace Auntie Lu.. you are joined back with your family and the love of your life💕*
