

Madeline Gregorio

April 6, 1915 - October 22, 2015

Obituary of Madeline San Gregorio Madeline r. SanGregorio passed away on Thursday October 22, 2015 at one hundred years of age. Madeline was born Madeline rose Orsini in Brooklyn, New York on April 6, 1915. She was the daughter of Gaetana and Antonio Orsini. Madeline was preceded in death by her husband Joseph r. SanGregorio and her son Robert J. san Gregorio. Madeline is survived by her daughter: Marie Vidal, a son in law: Dr. Joseph Vidal. Grandsons: Phillip Vidal, David Vidal and Roxana his wife, Eric San Gregorio. Great grandson: Marco Vidal. Granddaughter Christina Vidal and Jaysen Goodwin her fiancé'. Linda San Gregorio a daughter in law and nephews, nieces and cousins in New York State. In her youth she was a piano teacher and studied under a professor of music from Rome Italy. Madeline was well known for her voice and piano skills as she came from a musical family. Madeline had a magnetic personality and a positive effect on everyone be it family, friends or people she just met. Madeline was a devout catholic and spent her life giving to missions to fight poverty for children. She will always be remembered for her special phrase "It Don't Mean a Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing)". The family would like to thank the team of professionals at Munroe Regional Medical Center for their compassionate care. It was comforting to her and us. Roberts Funeral Homes West Chapel (352) 854-2266 made the arrangements. To leave condolences: robertsfunerallhomes.com.

Tribute Wall

RB

“ Please accept our condolences at the passing of your dear mother, Madeline. What a blessing to have lived 100 years, and a privilege for your family to have had her in your lives for so long. With Deepest Sympathy, Robert and Mary Ellen Barchi

Robert and Mary Ellen Barchi - October 27, 2015 at 12:00 AM