

Magdalena Klak

March 21, 1931 - June 30, 2020

Magdalena Klak, age 89 years, of Ocala, FL, died peacefully on Tuesday, June 30, 2020 at the home of her beloved daughter, Jeannie Aversa, under the caring watch of Hunterdon Hospice.

Magdalena was born and raised in Poland, surviving her young years during the invasion of Poland during World War II. She moved to the United States at the age of 32, escaping Communist Poland looking for a better life.

Marrying the love of her life Andrzej Klak at the age 34, the couple would buy a home in Bridgewater, NJ and it was there where they raised a family.

Andrzej retired in 1982 and the couple moved to Ocala, FL. She kept a beautiful home in Ocala that was always well landscaped from her amazing gardening skills.

A devout Catholic, Magdalena attended daily Mass and Rosary at Lady of the Springs Catholic Church. When she became home bound, she watched daily mass 3 times a day on television.

Surviving are her only child, daughter, Jeannie Aversa, and son-in-law Joseph Aversa of Ringoes, NJ; three granddaughters, Ashley Aversa of New Milford, NJ, Kaitlyn Aversa of Virginia Beach, VA and Melissa Aversa of Ringoes, NJ; several extended family members; and many dear friends.

Magdalena was predeceased by husband, Andrzej, her parents, Jan and Maria Smycz, and all of her 5 siblings in Poland.
