“ My Mom! She will truly be missed. Her life was hard, she never complained. She believed in love, families and hard work. If you have read the book or seen the movie, Coal Miners Daughter, that was her life. My Mom and Dad raised Eight kids on a Miners pay. Mother washed clothes on a wash board everyday. I have seen her fingers bleed; to complain there was no need, she would smile in Mothers understanding way. I'm proud to be a coal miners daughter in a cavern way back in Yancey holler; Not much left there anymore. We never had much but we did have love. I can remember every whipping I got and most of them I needed. She was very important to me. She has taught me a lot and she leaves me with most precious memories. Mother believed and trusted in God. I hope I can live up to her expectations. I will miss her terrible. Our adventures together, our talks, yes our fusses, we all have them but I always call her and never let a night fall with calling her and you know she never remember them, but I did. I will see her again. Your daughter, Ann Finley Elton

“ I was so sorry to hear of Maggie's passing. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family. I remember her as a happy, good natured, woman, with her mother's smile and her dad's eyes. She was a special cousin to my dad "Ed Davenport". My memories of her are dear.

“ To all the Finley family Your mother was just like a mother to me. She taught me so many things in my early year as a new bride. Things a young girl needed to know about being a family.I will miss her. But we will meet again some day soon. I know that God is holding her hand today as they walk through their garden. Love to all. Linda Finley (Daughter in law.)

“ Dear Anne, At times such as these words do not play the role intended, neither do silences help matters. I want you to know that we are with you in thoughts and share of your pain. May the good Lord grant repose to the spirit of the departed. To live in the hearts of those who love us is not to die. Stay strong at this moment... The Yoruba Teacher
