Margaret (Peggy) Carter, 79, of Ocala, Florida formerly of Covington, IN, passed away on June 3, 2022, at home, with family by her side.

Peggy was born on August 28, 1942, in Danville, IL, the daughter of Lloyd (Red) Hall and Jeanette (Myers) Hall. She Married Jay D. Carter on October 26, 1963, he proceeded her in death on June 21, 2017.

Survivors include her son, Michael (Jessica) Carter, Ocala, FL, and daughter Jayne Ann Carter, Ocala, FL. Grandchildren Jay Carter (14), Ocala, FL, Jacob (Jae' Mara) Fantauzzi, Tavares, FL, and, Jayda Fantauzzi, Newport News, VA, brother, Judge Charles C. Hall (Kim), Danville, IL; Brother-in-Laws Phil Carter (Sue) of Tempe, AZ, Bill Carter (Susan) of Fort Collins, CO, several nieces, nephews, and cousins. Peggy was proceeded in death by her parents and husband.

Peggy graduated from Danville High School in 1960 and was a member of St. James United Methodist Church in Danville. She enjoyed playing the violin in the high school orchestra, participating in many clubs and activities, and belonging to her high school sorority. When she was just a teenager, she was with her cousins, on a summer day, at a neighboring small town city pool when it started to rain. The group of teens started to make the long milage walk back to their grandparents' horse farm outside of town when a lifeguard at the pool offered the group a ride. She did not know it at the time, but that high school lifeguard would someday become her husband.

After high school, she attended and graduated from what was then known as Lakeview School of Nursing in 1963. She enjoyed many different settings and areas of nursing during her career, but always said that her favorite position was that of a RN on night shift at a State Prison in IL.

Peggy spent many years living in Covington, IN with her husband and children. She was a member of Covington's Tri Kappa Sorority. She enjoyed attending the activities that her children participated in, from sporting events to marching band and orchestra concerts. She was an avid reader and knitter. She also attended trap shooting events throughout the mid-west with friends to watch her husband participate.

In the early 90's Peggy moved to Florida with her husband when he started Master Garage Builders, Inc. with their son. While living in FL, she enjoyed saltwater fishing with her husband and daughter from piers in Daytona to the Sunshine Skyway Pier in Tampa/St. Pete. She also enjoyed watching her grandson play baseball whenever she could and was an avid fan of Indiana University basketball and of the NY Yankees.

Per her wishes and in lieu of a service, a celebration of her life will be conducted in her honor.

Peggy was a loving wife, mother, Grammy, sister, sister-in-law, aunt, cousin, and friend and will be deeply missed.
