

Margaret D. Nutting

July 27, 1927 - February 18, 2023

Margaret Deibert Nutting passed away on February 18, 2023, in Ocala, Florida.

Margaret (Peggy) Nutting was 95.

Margaret was born in Mahanoy City, Pa to John and Mildred Deibert on July 27, 1927, but lived most of her life in New Jersey, first residing in Jersey City and then later in Scotch Plains, Warren and Brick. Margaret was a devoted wife to Raymond Maxwell Nutting, who predeceased her in 1992. Ray and Margaret had three children: Richard D. Nutting of Carlisle, Pa (married to Marie), Glenn R. Nutting of Ocala, Florida (married to Deborah) and Susan Nutting Daly of Williamsburg, Virginia (married to James). Margaret also leaves behind two grandsons, Kevin N. Daly of Succasunna, New Jersey and Brian J. Daly of Richmond, Virginia, and three great grandchildren, Nathan, Colin and Miles. Also left behind is Margaret's sister-in-law and life-long friend Dorothy Deibert, wife of Margaret's brother James Deibert, who predeceased her.

During her life, Peggy enjoyed homemaking, reading, was a collector of Royal Bayreuth porcelain and was an accomplished Mahjong player.

“ Prayers go out to everyone in the Nutting family for memories of your Mom, Grandmother and Great Grandmother will live in our hearts forever. As Aunt Peggy to me, hearing of her love of baseball and her favorite team, the NY Yankees, will always be my fondest memory. May Peace and the love of family be with you all during this difficult time. Love Collette and Tony Varisco
