

Margie McLeod Seibert

September 19, 1924 - December 2, 2022

Margie McLeod Seibert, 98, of Ocala, FL, peacefully passed away in the presence of loved ones on December 2, 2022, while visiting family in Georgia. Margie was born in Jacksonville on September 19, 1924, to Hubert and Mae McLeod. She graduated from Robert E. Lee High School, Jacksonville, FL, and began working for the State of Florida assimilating WWII Veterans back into the workforce. During this period, she met and married Roy "Duane" Seibert while he was in Navy Flight Training. In 1951, after he graduated dental school, they moved to Ocala. Margie is preceded in death by Duane, her husband of 50 years, her daughter, Sandra Payne, granddaughter Rebecca Payne and brother, Fender McLeod. She is survived and will be greatly missed by her daughter, Nancy (Ralph) Rowand, Lake City, FL; her son Grant (Mary) Seibert, Jefferson, GA; seven grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren. She was an active member of Maricamp Road Church of Christ, a board member and President of Heart of Florida Girl Scout Council, election poll and PTA volunteer. She dearly loved her family and friends, enjoyed travel, cooking, gardening, bridge and supper clubs. A funeral service will be held at Roberts of Ocala Downtown Chapel on December 10, 2022, at 1:00 PM with visitation at noon. The interment will immediately follow at Highland Memorial Park.
