“ To the family and friends of Margot. I would like to extend my deepest condolences to all of you for your loss. The death of a loved one is very difficult to accept and even harder to understand. However Jehovah the God of all comfort promises in Revelations 21:3,4 that soon death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry or pain the former things have passed away. May these words provide you with a measure of comfort now and in the days ahead.

“ Gone From My Sight

*I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.*

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone."

Gone where?

*Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.
And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.
Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.*

And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"

And that is dying...

“ Dear Walter and Family, I was a friend and classmate of Judy's through the 11th grade, I had not seen her in many years until she attended one of our banquets about 5 years ago, and it was so good to see her. I'm very sorry for your loss, and pray God's peace for each of you. We are gathering on Feb. 16th for our 55th year class reunion so we will share her passing with our classmates.
With love, Wanda Davis

“ I wish you peace and comfort during this time of sorrow. (2 Corinthians 1:2-4) The Bible gives real hope of being reunited again with your loved one. It promises that your loved one will soon come back to life in the resurrection to a beautiful peaceful paradise on the earth. (John 5:28, 29) Sincerely, S. Ellis

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am Sara DRYDEN Lee. I knew Judy from along ways back. I always considered her a friend. I have kept up with her from different one I came in contact with over the years. Most recently Joann Wiley. James I hope you remember me. I have fond memories of Judy when we lived close and in school. I pray God will be with you and your family during this time. 🙏🌹
