Obituary of Marjorie CauleyCauley, Marjorie Elizabeth, 79, of Ocala, FL passed away at home in the loving care of her family on March 14,2012. She was the daughter of Mary Mack and Artie Schellenberg. She was born and raised in Allentown, P A., and graduated from Central Catholic High School in 1951. She worked, very happily, for the Archdiocese of Allentown until the family relocated from Bethlehem, P A to Hatfield, P A. She then worked for nearly twenty years, amongst wonderful people and good friends, and retired as the Director of Human Resources for Teva Pharmaceuticals in Sellersville, P A., in 1997. She and her husband, John E. Cauley, retired to Oak Run in Ocala, FL. In Oak Run both Marge and Jack, yet again, found happiness and great friends. She was a selfless, loving wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. She bestowed love, kindness, and generosity far beyond her family to all who crossed her path. She was preceded in death by her son, Kevin Cauley and is survived by her loving and devoted husband of 59 years John E. Cauley, Ocala, FL, four children; Karen Cauley, Devon, PA, Elizabeth Wallace Flemington, NJ, Janet Cauley Schlarbaum.Jvewtown Square, PA and Tom Cauley, Kimberton, P A., her brothers Richard, Jack and James Schellenberg all of Bethlehem, PA, her sister Lenore Mathews, Center Valley, PA., eleven grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews all of whom adored her and will miss her. She was a member of the Oak Run Art Club and helped with painting the stage props; also loved cooking and entertaining large groups.; was also a member of the Oak Run Tennis Club and Water

Volleyball Club; she also enjoyed traveling and attending the ih Calvary Reunions with her loving husband, but most of all loved spending time with her loving family and friends. Father Patrick O'Doherty will celebrate a mass of Christian Burial at the Queen of Peace Church in Ocala, FL on Saturday, March 24,2012 at IOAM. In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to the Queen of Peace Church, Ocala, FL 6455 S.W. State Road 200 Ocala, FL 34476 or Hospice of Marion County, Inc. S.W. 34th Avenue, Ocala, Florida.
