“ July 4th, 2021 The day is almost over. You have been on my mind so much today. You loved the 4th of July. One of my fondest memories of you was when you were 4 years old and we lived in the house in Ocala Park Estates and you wanted to hold your own sparkler. When it got almost to the end you handed it to me and said "now be brave like me mommy and you wont get sparkled by the hot part"..... as you became an adult, you loved fireworks. Your dog Rambo hated them. I miss you MarkeeBear.... Thank you for continuing to watch over us all. Momma loves you and will be with you again one day.
