

Mark Treichler

May 6, 1943 - November 18, 2012

Obituary of Mark Treichler Mr. Mark L. Treichler, 69, passed away on November 18, 2012 in Ocala, FL. He was born in Walnutport, PA on May 6, 1943. He was a retired Crane Operator with Bethlehem Steel. He moved to Ocala in 1998 from Slatington, PA. Mark is preceded in death by his oldest daughter, Susan Treichler and his parents Charles and Verna Treichler. Mark is survived by Brenda Conrad with who he resided. One son: Daniel Treichler of Montrose, PA. Two daughters: Linda Hibbard of Montrose, Pa and Janet Pagotto, wife of Steven Pagotto of West Lawn, PA. Three sisters: Dorothy Longenbach of Schnecksville, PA; Kathy Desh of Bethlehem, PA. and Louise Wunderly of Bath, PA. Four grandchildren: Nathan Hibbard, Andrew Pagotto, Michael Pagotto and Jennifer Pagotto. Services will be held at a later date. Roberts Funeral Homes Bruce Chapel West in Ocala, FL made the arrangements. To leave condolences www.robertsfuneralhomes.com

Tribute Wall

BC

“ Mark, I will miss you very much. Even though we had differences we still got along. I thought we'd get to live out our lives together, but the good Lord up above had other ideas and wanted you to come home and not suffer anymore. I'm glad of that because you suffered so much the last 3 weeks of your life. I love you so much and we'll meet again. Love you until then. Brenda

Brenda Conrad - November 25, 2012 at 12:00 AM

NH

“ pappy, youve taught me alot about fixing things and how stuff worked but you also taught me alot about life ill never forget thoes times we shared and getting to drive you around in your truck and just messing around with things you were far from a traditional grandfather but you were by far one of the best friends and teachers ive ever had

nathan hibbard - November 24, 2012 at 12:00 AM

LH

“ i have many memories...dad always had the answers right or wrong! i could call my father to answer questions from cars to furnances and he always knew what the problem was...my dad was a very caring,patient and understanding person...the last couple of weeks were hard on him i am glad to see the pain is over...i love my dad and i will always miss him until we meet again

linda hibbard - November 24, 2012 at 12:00 AM

DL

“ Linda & family, I am so sorry for your loss. Always remember the good times with your Dad, they will help you get through the sorrow. My love & prayers are with you at this time and always.

Debbie Leikel - November 21, 2012 at 12:00 AM

SP

“ I'll always remember his knowledge of the gas engine and all the help he gave me and the things he taught me. He was always there to help. To get me home and running again. Thanks Mark.

Steve Pagotto - November 20, 2012 at 12:00 AM