“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to your family. 1 Corinthians 15:25, 26 says "For he [Jesus] must rule as king until God has put all enemies under his feet. And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing". At Revelation 21:4 it says regarding Jehovah, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Finally, take courage in the hope of the resurrection promised at Acts 24:15 "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."

“ Dear King, Lynch and Quall Family. I wanted to send my deepest condolences in your loss of Maralayne. Losing a loved one is devastating, especially someone so young. Many wonder at a time like this; 'Does God care?' Please be assured that he does and already has a purpose for bringing an end to all suffering, including death (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 25:8). Along with that 'No resident will say; "I am sick"' (Isaiah 33:24). This will be accomplished by means of God's kingdom, when his will is done on earth. Then we'll witness the resurrection of our loved ones that Jesus talked about at John 5:28-29. Please read these verses as a family. They will comfort you now, and in the days to come. Sincerely Mrs. C. Santana.

“Marlayn was a very sweet woman and a good friend. She would give the shirt off her back to anyone in need. We had amazing memories when you stayed here. I wish I could go back in time. I love and miss you so much. Praying for your children in this time of need.. Rest in heaven angle. Gone but never forgotten..
