

Marshia Valleau

May 27, 1950 - September 24, 2024

Marshia Valleau, 74 of Ocala, Florida passed away on Tuesday, September 24th at Cates Hospice House, Ocala. She was born Marshia Louise Canter on Saturday, May 27, 1950 to Marshall and Lou Ellen (Naylor) Canter in Lexington, Kentucky.

She was the Director of Religious Education for the Catholic Church but had to retire for health reasons. Her love for God, her faith and especially her family was immeasurable. She touched many lives, and her memory will live on through them.

Marshia is survived by her husband of 55 years, Michael Valleau. They met while both serving in the United States Air Force at Selfridge Air Force Base, Michigan. Together they had three children, a daughter, Tracey Hohman and her husband, Bill, son, Chris Valleau and his wife Maggie, and daughter, Jessica Valleau. As well as seven grandkids and five great-grandkids.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, October 26th from 2:00~5:00 pm at Roberts of Ocala West Chapel; 6241 SW State Road 200 Ocala, Florida 34479

Previous Events

Celebration of Life Gathering

OCT 26. 2:00 PM - 5:00 PM (ET)

Roberts of Ocala West Chapel

6241 SW State Rd 200

Ocala, FL 34476

(352) 537-8111

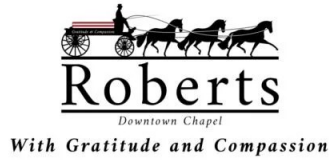

info@robertsfunerals.com

<http://www.robertsfunerals.com>

Tribute Wall

“ Roberts of Ocala Funerals and Cremations created a Webcast in memory of Marshia Valleau

Roberts of Ocala Funerals and Cremations - October 25, 2024 at 04:14 PM

“ Serene Reflections Bouquet was purchased for the family of Marshia Valleau.

October 23, 2024 at 03:22 PM

GD

“ My name is Gwen Dennis and we have become friends through my son, Scott, with Jessica. She inquired as to whether I could go sit with her mother, Marshia, one day while she was in Hospice House. I had never met Marshia and was a little hesitant at first, but through prompting of the Holy Spirit, I decided to go. I could tell the minute I saw her lying there, that she would have been someone I feel I could have really gotten close to. I introduced myself to a fellow Kentuckian, prayed over her and, read scripture to her, and just sat quietly with her. Even though there was no exchange of words or expressions of acknowledgement from her, I felt that the Holy Spirit connected our spirits as one. The nurse told me that the hearing is the last sense to go and I pray somehow, someday she heard the words of God/Jesus. Marshia, I wish I could have met you a long time ago. I think I would have had a lifelong friend. RIP and someday, I hope to finally get that chance! Jessica and family, thank you for the privilege of being with your precious love one. I will always remember her.....

Gwen Dennis - October 23, 2024 at 11:03 AM

CC

“ I am so honored to have met dear Marshia & blessed to be in her circle and to be a mom #2. Thank you for sharing your beautiful daughter with our family. God's blessings and comfort to all.

Christina Nuccio Crider & Tom Crider - October 22, 2024 at 07:10 PM

MM

“ A truly sweet woman I am lucky to have met.
Rest in peace, you are missed. Hugs
Morgana

Morgana McIntosh - October 21, 2024 at 08:28 AM

“ Arrive in Style was purchased for the family of Marshia Valleau.

October 20, 2024 at 02:51 PM

“ My sweet cousin...Marshia. We have so many fond memories of spending time with her on our farm in Kentucky where she spent about three summers with us when we were all teenagers. We probably drove mama and daddy crazy but it sure was fun making lasting memories. We drove tractors, played in the barns and fields, rode hay wagons, helped house tobacco, wrote fan letters to our teen idols, fished, visited relatives, played board games and card games, went to church, played croquet and baseball, took long walks and enjoyed the good country living! Rest in peace sweet cousin and know you are loved by all of your Kentucky family!

Cindy - October 16, 2024 at 08:28 PM

“ I feel honored to have been able to call you family. My life has blessed me with a few close friends whose parents adopted me as one of their own. I am a better person for knowing you. You were always supportive and loving with me, my children, and Tom. You encouraged me to be the best version of myself. Never judged and always willing to give guidance. There is no way I could choose just one memory to share that would sum up what you mean to me. Just know I love you, miss you, and will be here looking over Jess and helping her through.

Joan Perry - October 12, 2024 at 04:35 PM

JV

“ The best mom anyone could ask for!! I will miss you so much! I love you mom!

Jessica Valleau - October 04, 2024 at 07:56 PM

CS

“ She was a truly wonderful woman and always showed us nothing but love. She is deeply missed. We are sending all our love and prayers.

Chris and Angie Smith

Chris & Angie Smith - October 04, 2024 at 06:31 PM

TB

She was the absolute best mom, wife and grandmother, she loved life and her garden and everyone who knew her loved her very much.. now she is the angel that will sit on our shoulders and look down on us with even more love... I love you mom!

Tracey and Bill - October 04, 2024 at 07:58 PM