Martha Ann Hanegan (Cassidy) born on March 3, 1951 in Mayo, Florida to Clarence Cassidy and Mary Lucille Ducksworth. Passed away July 8, 2021 in Marion County, Ocala, Florida. In Martha's early years, she loved to sing Christian songs, help with church activities and helped raise her siblings. She was a seamstress for almost 47 years. She made her kids clothes when they were little and even made most of her own clothing. Before retiring, she made upholstery for the furniture industry. She made quilts for family and friends. She loved flowers of all kinds and preferred flowers as gifts instead of actually trinkets. She was a devoted Christian in the Pentecostal church. When she first learned of her first grandchild, she stated to her oldest daughter, what did you do that for? However, as the grandchildren came along she loved them with all of her heart. They were her pride and joy. She took her grand kids to church as often as she could. She read her bible daily. She loved canning like her mother and grandmother used to do. She loved making crafts and things as gifts for the family. She loved decorating for all the holidays and spending time with her children and grandchildren. She was a caring, loving and devoted wife to her husband, Clifford for 51 years. She was preceded in death by both her parents, brothers Joseph & Ronnie and sister Nancy, her husband Clifford and her son Christopher. She is survived by her daughters Jennifer and Christina and grandchildren Melissa, Amber and Jayden. She will be greatly missed by those who knew her.
