“ Mom, I can never begin to thank you for all the love, dedication, and sacrifices you made for all of your children. I always loved the children's Bible stories and songs you taught me, the many times you scratched my back as I fell asleep in church, the fun times we had singing as a family, all the ball games we watched on TV together, and all the times you hid your face as I ran the football in high school afraid I would get hurt. You were a great pastor's wife complimenting Dad in so many ways in his 44 years of ministry. I was always proud to be the oldest son of Rev. Jay and Martha Keiser. We will see you and Dad in Heaven. What a great family reunion that will be! We love you Mom. Your son Ron, Karen, and children Scott, Matt, & Melissa

“ We will miss Martha. She was straight forward in her view of the world & it's people. Years of physical problems didn't deter her determination to do her best. Caregiving took it's toll on her, but now she is singing with the saints. Good-bye Martha, see you soon! The Mortimers
