

Martha Louise Wentworth

September 6, 1947 - May 21, 2025

Martha Wentworth, a vibrant soul known for her creativity, quick wit, and generous heart, passed away peacefully on May 21, 2025, surrounded by her children. She was 77.

She was the proud and loving mother of Mandy Mills (spouse Michele), Morgan Billings (spouse Gavin), Casey Mills, and Patrick Dacey (spouse Victoria). She found immense joy being a grandmother to Brigham, Jackson, Bristol, and Jamison.

Born in Miami, Florida, on September 6, 1947, Martha was the beloved daughter of Elmer and Elizabeth Wentworth. She grew up in a lively and loving home with her siblings Bob Wentworth, Barbara Amazon, Sheila Westberry, Richard Wentworth, and the late Jason Wentworth.

For 40 years, Martha dedicated herself to her work at Woodbridge Physical Therapy. Under the leadership of her boss and dear friend Bruce, and alongside her trusted coworker and friend Jody, she found not just a career but a second family. Her creativity, humor, and empathy made her a cherished presence in the clinic and a source of comfort and laughter to all who knew her.

Martha had a remarkable eye for beauty and a knack for discovering the charm in everyday things. She adored collecting antiques and relished the hunt at estate sales. Her home reflected her clever ingenuity and artistic spirit. Known for her cooky sense of humor and inventive mind, she was always coming up with something unexpected and delightful.

Above all, Martha made people feel special. Whether through a small act of kindness, a shared laugh, or an encouraging word, she had a gift for making others feel seen, valued, and loved.

Martha's legacy lives on in the lives she touched with love, laughter, and a deep sense of connection. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

A celebration of Martha's life will be held at a later date to be announced. In honor of her memory, the family invites all who knew her to share stories and memories that reflect the joy and light she brought into the world.
