“ I have known Martin since I was 15. He has always been a good hearted person. After we were Married and had kids and divorced we still remained good friends! I will always cherrish our memories and friendship. I thank him for everything he as done and for our beautiful children and being like a dad to my other Children. I know he is at peace now and also with his mom and our son. He will be missed.

“ Ken, we are so very sorry about the loss of your brother. I know this is difficult for you. Remember how God helped you when you lost your beloved wife, Mayra, in November. God is with you now. You have many friends praying for you now, especially Harry and I.
