“Dear Chamberlin Family: Jim Chamberlin of New Milford, CT is trying to re-contact his sister, Tammy Vazquez, of Newburgh, NY, whom he talked to last fall, to thank her for some help she provided to him. Is it possible to contact us at this number: (860) 210-1728, and give us her phone number, which Jim can't seem to find!! Also, you can leave a message at this number if no one is home at the time of your call Thank you so much, and sorry for your great loss!! Sincerely, Diane and Jim C.

“Dad it doesnt seem possible this could happen to the strongest man I know. I wish Olivia was right all I have to do is get a wishing well and everything will be alright, or ask Santa and he makes all wishes come true. I just cant believe I will never get that phone call in a deep voice hey, what are you doing? Or hey, its Dad call me back,. This is the hardest thing ever! I love you Dad! I miss you.

“ Debbie and Family, I am so very sorry for your loss of Marvin. I would see him almost everyday. My son Brandon would look out at his truck and inspect it because he took such great pride in his vehicles!!!! If my son saw anything wrong or if Marvin changed something on it Brandon would love to go talk to him about it. Marvin would always give Brandon advice on his own truck. He is truly missed!!!!!! I will never forget him. Rest in Peace Marv May Peace Be With Your Family

“ My deepest sympathies to all of Marvi's friends and family. He was a good friend, and always willing to lend a hand whenever it was needed. I will miss seeing his truck coming and going in and out of the neighborhood. I hope that happy memories and time can help to ease the pain of his passing.
