

Mary Loebel

July 21, 1919 - February 27, 2012

Obituary of Mary Loebel A noble woman was laid to rest Monday with the passing of Mary Anita Loebel. She was born Mary Anita Nehring July 21st 1919 to Raymond and Anita Nehring in Milwaukee WI. Mary attended Wauwatosa High school and went on to marry the love of her life, Frederick Arthur Loebel , on June 18th, 1938. Fred and Mary raised 6 children together in the Milwaukee area and created adventuorous memories at their island home in the Bahamas. Mary had an artistic and creative flair and expressed her eye for color in her dress, her home, and her art. Mary was well known for her generous nature, her prized needlework, and her creativity. She was preceded in death by her husband Frederick Loebel and son James. She is survived by her sister Lois of Milwaukee, WI; daughters Nancy Hyde, Jane Loebel, and Wendy Dreazy, and sons Robin Loebel and Chris Loebel. She is further survived by 14 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.