“ To Mom, Every day we live brings us much closer to the time when all those who have died in Jehovah's favor will hear the voice of his son and come back. That will be a wonderful time to greet them and welcome them back into a world where death will no longer occur. Dad, was like a real father to me, and one in which I could confide in. I will truly miss his presence. May we like Dad continue to put up that hard fight for the faith. Love, Scylene, Brandan and Vicki
