“Michelle was a very special person. I worked with her in the clinic at the Elementary school and she cared very much for the children. She had pictures of her grandkids on her desk and often spoke about her family and how much they mean to her. I did not know Michelle for very long but we became close and she will be missed like crazy by me and some others at Dunnellon Elementary.. She had an amazing, very loving heart and has made good Karma in this lifetime.. I will always be Thankful to have known someone like Michelle...

“ Heartfelt thoughts go out to Jim, Shannon, Lauren and all those who loved you. We shared many laughs, tears, good times and watched our children grow. Even though we weren't as close as we once were, I missed those early morning talks after the kids went to school. A true golden heart that will carry on w your beautiful daughters. The world has lost a wonderful person and I hope your family finds comfort in the memories to carry you thru these sad days. RIP. Michelle
