“ *Myia was a daughter that change my life. As her step dad I had to fight for her love and respect. It wasn't easy but I won her over. Myia my daughter was sassy, smart and so beautiful. She had a heart of pure gold that would go out her way to help someone. She put others before herself and always made sure you had something to eat or snack on. I will miss her laugh more then anything, and the way she would hug me. She would hug me so tight and place her head deep into my chest. I know she is in a better place because her heart was loving and she put others first. Knowing my daughter isn't here to hug me and tell me thank for loving and taking care of Mom. Myia, my baby I love you and miss you.

Myia was always smiling and full of love for life. I remember picking up pizza from her at hungry howies. And she always, always made me smile and laugh. Or seeing her at Carey's and her love for her dad. What an absolute beautiful young lady, I am very proud to say I got to spend a small amount of time getting to know Myia. She will be remembered. My heart goes out to anyone who loves her. One great loss here. A wonderful, amazing addition to heaven. She is probably singing loud.

“ I used to call Myia “Myia Bugs” when she was little. She is now “Myia Butterfly.” I’ll never forget her feeding me like I was her child whenever she got food, haha, or how we rode the bus to church on Wednesday’s when we were little. She would always sneak silly pictures or videos of me and just make me laugh whenever we were together. Myia, this broken world may have broken you, but our bond will never break. I will see you again. Thank you Jesus for taking her in.

“ Myia was always fearless and I shared with her 2 memories at Alexis gender reveal where we last spoke and laughed together.

She was about a year in a half maybe 2 and I would let her come outside with me on the 2nd floor front porch while I would do my little dance routines. Well she decided she was going to attempt to fly and full speed with her little strides towards the stairs and I remember my heart racing as I chased her and caught her mid air as she was running straight off the top step! That scared me so much and here she is laughing so much. I never told my mom b/c I thought she wouldn't let me be outside with her anymore. I use to love watching her.

The other memory I shared with myia that day is when she got loose from the apartment.

From a distance I could hear a cry while I was getting ready for school. I look out my bedroom window and there are adults looking confused as a baby in nothing but a diaper was wandering loose. I was like dangggg look at that baby. I go in living room and door was wide open! Suddenly it struck me. MYIA! Omg I ran so fast to her as she made it about 100yards. That girl was always trying to escape and explore even as a baby.

“ When we were younger, we'd play dress up with her clothes and she would do my make up all the time. As soon as I did something to make her mad, she would tell me to take all her clothes off. Even wipe the make up off. She was a little brat as a kid but she grew up to be the most caring, generous, give you her last type of person. Her energy was unmatched. I will make sure my baby boy knows who you are. I love you forever, my hippie. Alexis (sister)
