

Myrtle Reaves

May 6, 1914 - July 24, 2007

Obituary of Myrtle Reaves Myrtle Waldron Reaves was surrounded by her loving children and grandchildren when Jesus called her home on Tuesday, July 24, 2007. Born to Mary Rhodes Waldron and Jesse Clarence Waldron on May 6, 1914 in Marion County, she was a life-long resident of Florida and lived in Ocala for most of her life. She continued to keep her home in Ocala and also divided her time between her daughters in Orlando and Atlanta after the death of her husband of 55 years, John Wiley Reaves. She was preceded in death by 4 sisters and 3 brothers and is survived by her daughters and sons-in-law, Wylene and Ted Perry of Atlanta, GA and Judy and Don Dotzler of Orlando, FL. She is also survived by 3 grandchildren, Michael Perry and his wife Candy of Atlanta and Justin and Jeremy Dotzler of Orlando; 2 great grandchildren, Luke and Katie Perry of Atlanta; and several generations of nieces and nephews. She was retired from Munroe Memorial Hospital where she was the first director of housekeeping and later was a medical secretary. A warm, gentle and unselfish person, she was loved by everyone who knew her.
