

Myrtle Vargo

August 22, 1921 - April 9, 2016

Myrtle Cecelia Vargo, 94, of Ocala, Florida, passed away April 9, 2016 at her home. She was born August 22, 1921 in Collington, Maryland to the late Albert & Irene (Deutsch) Boswell. She moved from Maryland to Flagler Beach, Florida in 1974 then to Ocala in 1987. Myrtle enjoyed crossword puzzles, piece puzzles, and crochet. She was a Catholic, attending most often at Our Lady of The Springs. Myrtle owned and operated a restaurant with her late husband Lawrence, and also worked for K-mart on Sliver Springs Blvd. She is preceded in death by her husband, Lawrence Vargo, and her son Curtis Vargo. Myrtle is survived by 3 sons; Butch Vargo of Iowa; Lee (Pam) of Maryland; Jay (Barb) of Maryland; daughter Sandra (Gene) Dow, of Ocala, Florida; 2 sisters; Rita (Emory) Kelley; and Doris Schneider of Maryland; 15 grandchildren; and 22 great grandchildren..

Tribute Wall

PJ

“ I have always held a warm place in my heart for my Aunt Myrtle. She, like her sisters, liked things done Right while having fun doing it. When I was planning my wedding (years ago), Aunt Myrtle and Uncle Rocky wanted to cater it for me. They told me not to worry, "It will be done Right." And was it ever! Everything was perfect. The food was fabulous. I was so proud to tell everyone, "My Aunt Myrtle and Uncle Rocky made all of the food." Paul and I could never thank them enough. We visited them often while they lived in Maryland. Myrtle was one of the most openly kind, caring and loving people that I've known. I'll always remember my Aunt Myrtle with a smile on her sweet face. May you rest in peace among the Angels in Heaven.

Paul and Betty Jackson - April 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM