

Nancy Ivey Carr

May 14, 1942 - November 25, 2018

Nancy Ivey Carr, 76, of Ocala, Florida, formerly of Hialeah, passed away early Sunday evening, November 25, 2018, surrounded by loved ones. Nancy was born in Sumter, South Carolina to James Thelma Gaffney on May 14, 1942. Her family relocated to Hialeah when she was two months old. Nancy remained there until 1980 when she relocated to Ocala with her family and late husband James Ivey. She began working as a cosmetologist at sixteen years of age and in 1985 she started as a Sales Rep in the cosmetology industry. The last thirty-five years she was employed by LOreal at Salon Centric. Nancy is survived by husband, Wade Carr of Ocala; four children, Collene Kent (Greg Kent) of Fredericton, NB, Canada, Michelle Moses (Tony Moses) of Guthrie, Oklahoma, Trish Wilkerson (Rob Wilkerson) of Parker, Colorado and Jimmy Ivey (Darci Ivey) of Port Saint Lucie, Florida. She leaves behind twelve grandchildren, Ryan Cordrey, Tyler Marie R, Tarah Beth Kent, Danielle Haydon, Rebekah Gilliam, Scott Kent, Eric Kowalski, Evan Kowalski, James Ivey and Molly Ivey; five great-grandchildren, Emma Moyer, Eliyanah Marie R Yohan R, Houston Ricketts, and Weston Kowalski; two step-sons Danny Carr and Terry Carr of Gainesville, Georgia and 2 step granddaughters, Megan Strickland and Rachel Carr. She also had many, many friends who all loved her. Nancy is preceded in death by her late husband, James Ivey, her parents, James Thelma Gaffney, her sister, Patty Lane, and her brother, Jimmy Gaffney. A memorial service will be held at One Life Fellowship, 3740 E Silver Springs Blvd, Ocala, Florida on December 2, 2018 at 2 p.m. Memorial donations may be made to Paralyzed Veterans of America.