“ Nana, I still think about you alot. I found myself sensing you next to me in the car the other night and began talking to you , then crying. It had to be you, right? I don't know, but I step back and the numbness subsides and the reality sets in. Then I feel empty. I know that you won't be in Florida when I go there, only in spirit. It will be tough to realize that when I do go. I'm happy that I spent time with you in your last few days with us. I would have been even more upset if I hadn't. I hope you are with me every day, especially when Gio looks off in the distance and starts laughing for apparently no reason, but I know it 's you. Love you. Joey

“ I'm deeply saddened to see one of the most loving and caring women in my life leave us. Nana was always caring about everyone in the family. I'm so grateful that I was able to live with her after high school. She always made sure I ate and that I was doing alright. She could tell if something was wrong and she would do whatever she could to help no matter what. I will always remember the birthday cards that she would send every single year no matter where I was. I know that she is in a better place with all of our loved ones who have passed and left us too early and that eases some of the pain. She will be missed greatly but she will be with us forever. Thank you for all of the wonderful memories through out my life that I will never forget. May you rest in peace. with all my love, your grandson Daniel

“ My nana was the best. She was the one who held our family together and with her loss I hope we all come together even stronger than before because I know she would of wanted that. This doesn't mean she's not going to be celebrated because we will always be thinking of her and all the things she did for us. She was such a selfless person always making sure everyone else was doing okay putting herself last but this time she's the one everyone's going to put first. I was able to be with her during her final days and even then she was worried about how I was doing which broke my heart. She helped raise the best family. I'm going to miss her muffins she made when ever I visited. Her birthday cards she never forgot to send. Her hugs when she was excited to see me. I will always cherish the time she spent with me. I love and miss you nana. I hope your doing okay up there.

“ Nana, I miss you every day. I'll miss you at our yearly family party. I'll miss you asking if I'm hungry. I'll miss you not hearing me when I talk to you and them promptly going on to the next subject. I'll miss seeing you not wanting to take pictures and avoiding cameras like the plague. I'll miss you missing your cute little poodle. I'll miss watching you watch Judge Judy. I'll miss you saying that you didn't want me to send you any xmas or bday gifts, then i'll miss you sending them back to me. I'll miss our trips to Maggios for you to order tripe. I'll really miss your kind disposition and caring personality. Never have I met anyone who said a bad thing about you, because you were and still are loved by all.

“ Nana was the most loving and caring person I know. She was always worried about others well being before herself which is what I loved about her. As far as I can remember she would send $5-$10 along with a card for mine and my brothers' birthdays, sometimes just randomly give us 5 bucks too just because. Always making muffins that were delicious! Everybody loved her even the dogs, they would never leave her side. Everything about you nana will be missed dearly! You left behind a wonderful loving family that will follow in your footsteps and try and make everyone's life a little better. Love and miss you sooo much. You're in heaven now with grandpa and my dad, pain free. Tell them I said hello. Good bye nana!

“ My mom was an amazing woman , inspiration to us all , perfect role model , always put her family ahead of herself, and had unconditional love for all her children , grandchildren , and great grandchildren. She will be always in my heart forever and ever and truly missed. Not a day will go by I will be thinking of her. Makes me very happy that I was by her side till her last breath, a moment I'll never forget. Mom you are with dad and the angels now, he will take you under his wing , Love forever, RIP oxoxox

“ Mom, I miss you so much! They say that time heals, we will see because right now it's not looking good. You always put everyone else first and always made sure that we all had what we needed. I miss your phone calls every day to see what I was doing, and asking about the boys. I knew this day would come but I tried not to think about it because I dreaded it so much. One thing I am thankful for is that you are no longer in pain or discomfort. Another is that we did what you wished without actually knowing for sure what you wanted, for that I am glad. You are with dad now and you can take care of each other and watch down on us and protect us together. There isn't a minute that goes by that I don't think about you and wish u were still here. You will always stay in my heart forever❤️. I love you to the moon and back❤️

“ Dear DeAmelio family, I am a community volunteer in the area. I know you do not know me personally but I wanted to share a few thoughts from the Bible that encouraged me greatly when my grandma passed away. In accounts like Luke chapter 7 and John chapter 11 it gives us a wonderful glimpse of what Jehovah God will do in the future. In Revelation 21:4 it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a wonderful time that will be!
