

Nancy Carol Huschle

March 11, 1944 - May 18, 2018

Nancy C. Huschle was a wonderful woman who had always tried to put others before herself. She had a very giving heart and was a member of the Jehovahs Witnesses. She was born in the state of New York on March 11, 1944 and is survived by her children Marie Mead of Dunnellon, FL, Tammy Travers of Ocala, FL and Carl Huschle, Jr. of Ocala, FL. She is also survived by her six grandchildren Stephen Phillips, Mark Travers, Jr., Joshua Travers, Brittney Huschle, Carl Huschle, III, Laura Hill, David Hill and Dalton Hill who will all miss her.

She has always been the type of woman who valued the life that God had given her and would want her family and friends to remember her as someone with a good heart and full of love. She would not want us to mourn her death, but to celebrate her life. Today, May 18th the Lord above welcomed home another one of his children who will be leaving behind many who loved her.

TimeTammy Travers

Time can change everything, or time can change nothing,

Each day contains memories taking nothing to something,

Cherishing friends and family through unconditional love,

A wonderful gift bestowed upon us from somewhere above,

Time can heal wounds yet leave scars behind,

It can help us see things where we were once blind,

It teaches us forgiveness, to put the past where it belongs,

It can mend broken hearts, and help us sing new songs,

Time can turn pain into just a memory, healing us from within and helping us breathe,

It can take sadness and turn it upside down, it can make us smile and erase our frowns,

It can make us look deeper into who we are, erasing all hate and make us shine like stars,

It can move slow and teach us a new lesson, with each new step to remember a blessing,

Time can move so fast bringing such confusion, leaving questions behind from the paths we have chosen,

It can take moments and make them slip by, leaving sorrow from someone whos not at our side,

It can make us remember people, places, or things; it can make us remember the joy that life brings,

It can make us question the actions we took, and whether we lived with our hearts as we always should,

Time is fleeting so cherish those you love, as they are here for a while before called above,

Time is for love so tell all that you care, and help them remember that love is there,

Time is for memories that are made each new day, so let someone know that you love them today,

Time is for all, both you and me; let us show them by the actions they see,

Time is for embracing the good and forgetting the past, to cherish wonderful memories that were made to last,

Time is limited so take it to heart, and begin each new day with a fresh new start,

Let us not mourn death but to celebrate life, we will hold with love cherished memories inside
