She was a gifted athlete, played basketball in high school, and was an ardent college sports fan. Nancy and her husband Lou were avid golfers, tennis players, and enjoyed regular card nights with friends. She loved music, playing the piano, and attending shows at the Playhouse in the Park. She appreciated a good screened-in porch, a quiet place to sip her coffee, and a comfortable chair in which to read a book, complete sudoku puzzles, and rest her eyelids. Nancy also loved the beach and a good "Sea Breeze" (with lots of cranberry juice).

Roberts Funeral Home in Ocala, FL is handling arrangements. The family will schedule a Celebration of Life in Ephrata, PA at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
