“ Even though I only talked to Neil on the phone, I could tell he was an interesting character, in every sense of the expression. Neil shared his love of restoring his Vega with me and we both shared a love of vintage Timex computers. I'll miss his wit and wisdom.

Your kind heart and funny interpretation of head master Mr. Cornelius.Saying "Where are you suppose to be? Will be there!"
That always made me smile! only your brothers and sisters at SNA could understand it better. :) I always loved your stories from the school about you and Lance. Will miss your guitar playing, you were so talented! our hearts are broken :(
