She is far more precious than jewels...Strength and honor are her clothing, and she can laugh at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and loving instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the activities of her household and is never idle. Her sons rise up and call her blessed. Her husband also praises her: Many women are capable, but you surpass them all! Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting, but a woman who fears the Lord will be praised. ~Proverbs 31:10, 25-30

“ Hi Erle, Sorry to hear about your mom's passing. It's nice to know she had such a relationship with the Lord. I looked at her pictures and video. She lived a full and loving life. In the pictures you haven't changed either. See ya. Mike Stelogeannis

“ *You were a good friend. I enjoyed having you for a neighbor for 6 years in Maryland and then 40 years here in Florida. We all look forward to our last journey to be with our loved ones that went before us. The four of us were known as the golden girls and now we are the three. We will all miss you. God Bless You. “ I think about her every day. I was so fortunate to find her after being separated when we were young. I know the Lord has her and she is in a better place now. She will always be in my prayers. Edith Atkins

“ Mom-Mom I lost both of my parents at a young age and you excepted me as I was your number one daughter because I was the oldest. You always made me feel welcome and part of the family which I will cherish forever. Thanks for all your help through the years and for being one of the golden girls. You will be missed but I know that you are where you want to be. Love you always, Theresa/Jim
