

Oswald Jeske

July 28, 1917 - March 21, 2015

Obituary of Oswald Jeske
Oswald Eric Jeske Oswald E. Jeske, "Ozzie", 97 of Ocala, entered into peaceful rest on Saturday, March 21, 2015. Born July 28, 1917 in Hartford, CT, he retired in Ocala, Florida in 1993. Ozzie served in the U.S. Army during WWII from 1942-1945 in the N. Africa and Italian campaigns. He was employed for many years by Chandler Evans Corp. of W. Hartford, CT, supervising the shipping department there. Ozzie loved traveling, playing card games, and socializing with his many friends. He was predeceased by his wife, Grace H. Jeske in 2004. Oswald is survived by his loving family including his son William Charles Jeske and his wife Diane of Coventry, CT, a daughter Debra Ann Kundra and her husband Robert of Oxford, CT, grandchildren Jennifer and Tim Duff, Holly and Mario Romano, Christopher and Christie Kundra and Kerri Kundra and 5 great grandchildren. A military funeral service will be held at Bushnell National Cemetery at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions may be directed to Make A Wish Foundation.