

Pamela Croy

June 6, 1947 - June 11, 2022

Pam Croy (75) passed away Saturday, June 11th, 2022 surrounded by family who loved her dearly. If Pam had a choice, she wouldn't have wanted it any other way, family meant everything.

Pam was known by many, whether she was known as the first female bank manager at a Suntrust in Florida, the owner of The Flag People, co chapter director for the local Ocala Goldwing Road Riders Association chapter, a friend, or just family. Pam was well known by many and if they didn't know her, the truly missed out. Pam was originally from Mount Pilot, North Carolina before moving to DeLand, Florida with her late parents Elise and Henry Parker, then settling in Ocala. In the 1970's she became a mother to Rick Cascaddan and Brandy (Ralph) Minchew . She later met Tom Croy and they married May of 1991. Soon after, becoming a grandma to Parker, Courtney, and Taylor, Minchew. Pam was a strong, kind, and caring woman that will be greatly missed by many. She will be missed and remembered daily.

She is also survived by her stepdaughter Jennifer Cronkhite and grandson Joshua Cronkhite.

There will be no service due to Pam's wishes but will be buried in a family

“ Pam I can't still believe you are gone. We only knew each other 6 years but I felt like we knew each other a life time. You left a impression in my life and you will truly be missed. But I have the assurance we will see each other again. See you soon! Praying for the family.

“ I remember visiting our cousins in Florida many times. My Mother was Henry's sister. Pam was a vibrant, beautiful young lady then. My thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time.

“ I miss you so much. I look across the street and my heart is sad that we can't sit on your porch, drink a glass of wine 🍷 and enjoy each other's company. I will never forget you and all the good times we've had. I'm sure we will see each other one day ... on the other side. I love 💕 you and miss you 😞! jhl
