

Patricia Mathewson DeLettre

April 15, 1944 - February 14, 2023

Patricia Mathewson DeLettre passed away February 14, 2023 in Ocala, Florida where she lived since 2004. Married to J. Neal DeLettre on October 1, 1966. Patricia is the mother of two children, Lynley and Richard (Rick). Patricia has two sisters, Alice Kay Mathewson and Christine Mathewson. Grand children include, Gracie, Mason, Katie, Manny, Matthew and Iyana.

Pat was born on Miami Beach, and grew up in Miami, Shores, Florida. She was the daughter of Dr. & Mrs. Richard Mathewson. She attended Edison High in Miami, Dade Junior College and Florida State University. At FSU, she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Pat was also a member of PEO, a philanthropic sorority, the Gourmet Club, Lunch Bunch and previously, Royal Dames.

The family moved to Ridgewood, NJ in 1975, where they lived for sixteen years. Many of their friendships from Ridgewood have lasted a lifetime.

Pat was an extraordinary lady. She was a loving wife to Neal for 56 years. She was a nurturing mother to her children and grandchildren. Wonder sister. Loyal friend to hundreds. A born leader. Pat was kind, generous and a role model to all who knew her. She was a beauty, inside and out. She was our "shining light".

In her career, Pat was an office manager for a physician, fundraiser for a non-profit and mother when the children were young.

Husband, Neal, her children, sisters, family and everyone who knew her are lucky to have had Pat as part of our lives. Pat will be dearly missed, and our love and appreciation for her will last forever. I love you, my dear Pat.

In lieu of flowers, grab your love ones and hold them tight.
