

Patricia Waldrep Tighe

February 28, 1935 - February 10, 2022

It is with sadness that we let everyone know that Patricia Waldrep Tighe, daughter of J.C. and Eunice Waldrep, passed away February 10, 2022 at 6:13 am. She will be cremated and will have a Memorial Service at a later date that will also include her eldest son, Charles Edward Tighe, III, who died on January 12, 2022 and was also cremated. This Memorial will be in Ocala, Florida. She is survived by her husband Charles Edward Tighe of Ocala, FL, whom she married on October 5, 1957, 64 years ago. A son, Stuart Loring Tighe of Largo, Florida. Three brothers, Douglas Waldrep, Terry (Charlene) Waldrep, and Billy (Janice) Waldrep of Gainesville, GA and Two sisters, Carol (Junior) Aycock and Vickie Poole both of Oakwood GA. In addition to her parents, a brother, Roger H. Waldrep, has previously deceased.

We are here to honor our sister, Patricia Waldrep Tighe, daughter of J.C. and Eunice Waldrep, that was born on February 28, 1935 and went to be with Jesus on Thursday morning, February 10, 2022 at 6:13 am. She was the oldest child and the oldest grandchild on the Waldrep's side of the family. She could play the piano, organ, and sing. She Loved to watch Musicals and Gone with the Wind. When she graduated from high school in 1953, she got a job in Atlanta with the government and stayed 2 years in Atlanta and then was transferred to Washington, DC. When she came to visit, she always rode the train back and forth between Gainesville and Washington. She met and married Charles Edward Tighe on October 5, 1957 and was married 64 years. Their first child, Charles Edward Tighe, III was born September 12, 1958 and the oldest grandson of J.C. and Eunice. When he graduated from high school, he worked as a bank teller before attending college. He lived with his parents most of his life. He died from complications of COVID on January 12, 2022. His ashes will be buried at the Our Redeemer Lutheran Church Cemetery in Ocala, Florida or the Wildwood Veteran Memorial Cemetery. Their youngest son, Stuart Loring Tighe was born on October 31, 1962. When Stuart graduated from high school, he moved to Florida when he still resides and works for the city of Largo. Pat lived in and around Washington, DC, Maryland, and Florida throughout her life and her last home was in Ocala, Florida with her husband and son, Edward. After being diagnosed with Alzheimer's and Charlie unable to continue to care for her, she moved into the Hawthorne Village Memory Care, on September 20, 2016. A Memorial Service will also be in Florida and Pat's ashes will be put at the Wildwood Veteran Memorial Cemetery in Bushnell, Florida, until Charlie passes to join her.

Tribute Wall

CT

“ *May our Lord & Savior Watch over our beloved Patricia Waldrep Tighe, for all eternity with him in Heaven.
With all our Love,
Charles E. & Stuart L.*

charles tigue - May 01, 2022 at 12:00 AM