“ .I wish to extend my heart felt sympathy to all who know and love this truly great man. As a neighbor and a friend I can bear witness that he truly enriched the lives of those who had the privilege to spend time with him. Paul had a Kind and generous spirit. He shared his wealth of wisdom, knowledge, common sense advice and sense of humor in every conversational exchange. I always enjoyed his interesting stories and appreciated his positive perspective and outlook on life. A truly genuine, good samaritan, with patience, and a heart of gold. He always made you feel better after talking with him. His acts of kindness, service to man and country, and personal respect and consideration of others has helped many people along the way and has truly made an impact in this world. I am grateful and privileged to have known and loved this beloved Christian man. Prayers for the Holy Spirits comfort and blessings to all and Praise to our loving Lord and Savior Jesus Christ whom Paul is now reunited with in Heaven. A life well lived here on earth and a better one beyond. Thank you my dear neighbor and friend. You will be sorely missed.. Till we meet again.

“ Dear Campbell Family, I wish to express my sincere condolences in your loss of Mr. Campbell. Although I did not know Mr. Campbell personally, I noticed from his obituary that he led a full life and had a large family who loved him dearly. That's why I wish to share some comforting scriptures with your family that have helped me. Verses such as Isaiah 33:24 and 25:8 help us to see that one day sickness, old age and even death will be no more. This goes nicely along with Revelation 21:4. Also Jesus spoke of a resurrection where we will be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28-29 & Acts 24:15). My favorite is Job 14:14-15. I hope you will find time to read these verses. You will no doubt be comforted. Sincerely, Mrs. C. Santana
