Paul L. Corallo, originally of Bronx, NY, and most recently Ocala FL, passed away peacefully on March 19, 2026, at the age of 86. He is survived by his former wife, Virginia Corallo, and his sister Angela Corallo, and brother Anthony Corallo. He was the loving father of his two children, Anthony Corallo and his wife Mary, and Donna Corallo. Paul was the cherished grandfather of Elizabeth Corallo. He was also the beloved uncle of Janine Martini and her husband Anthony, Angelique Martini, Gia Martini, Lisa Capasso and her husband Jerry, Robert Tomasulo and his wife Denise, Suzie Lattanzi, Susanne Furtaw, Francine Catanzaro, Peter Corallo, Neil Corallo, Dana Schories, Mike Catanzaro, Helen Corallo, Theodore Corallo, Brenda Bradley, Linda Vega, and chosen brothers, Robert, Perry, Lalo, and leaves behind many dear relatives and friends in New York, California, and Florida.

Paul was predeceased by his parents, Anthony and Helen Corallo of Brooklyn, NY, and his older brothers, Neil Corallo, formerly of Los Angeles, Ca, Peter Corallo, Formerly of Brooklyn, NY, and Leon Corallo, formerly of Ft. Walton Beach, FL.

Paul was a man of great faith and devotion, to Jesus and the Blessed Mother. He was a spiritualist, artist, entrepreneur, writer, gifted storyteller, an avid traveler and reader. He favored science, history, gardening, music, and classic films, from W.C. Fields to Humphry Bogart. Paul will be remembered for his love for life, La dolce vita, and his kind generous heart. Paul had a deep love and appreciation for his pets, nature, wildlife, and all of God's creations. He treasured and enjoyed the vast beaches and forests, from the east coast to the west coast, and the vibrant rich tapestry and spirit of New York City. Paul also cherished his time spent with family and friends. He was always ready to lend an open ear and heart, with encouragement and support. While sharing his stories and laughter, his kind love, wit, humor, charisma, and charm touched everyone.

Paul will be deeply missed. But his spirit and memory will remain in the hearts of all who shared the joy of knowing him.

Paul's life will be celebrated and blessed with a funeral mass, on Saturday, April 18, 2026, at 12 noon, at St. Gabriel's Historic Church, 549 Route 520 (Newman Springs Rd.), Marlboro, NJ.
