“Ginny, we were deeply saddened by Peter's passing. I feel bad that he and I saw each other only sporadically. When Peter moved to Nahant, way back when, my dad became a father figure to him and Judy. He and I were like brothers, target shooting with my BB gun, beach combing (mostly in the cold weather because the adults always told us to go outside) building fires out of driftwood on the shore facing Swampscott. Playing tag and flag football on Sundays. When he got married of course we saw less of each other, but whenever we did get together we always talked about our Peterson grandparents too. Our Condolences
