“ B"n Its been a few years since she returned to HaShem. My wife and I miss her dearly and continue to speak of her in the present tense. Why do we do that? Because she lives in our hearts and memory. If only she could see us now. I have returned to the hasidic community where I received a warm welcome home. If only she could see me. I will speak of her and grandpa for the rest of my days.

“ I will always have great memories of such an amazingly wonderful, and a warm spirited women. Anybody who knows her, I'm sure will agree, how she conveyed herself in a spontaneous and natural way. So much that those around her could feel her Love and Passion for life. Together, she has left a mark in our hearts so deep, that we will miss her dearly, yet at the same time are Blessed to know that she is warming the Hearts of those she is now with for all of eternity. This is why we should not say good-bye, however, say we'll see you later. "I Thessalonians 4:13-18"
