“ It is with a heavy heart that i have to write and not able to be there in person to deliver this tribute for my Brother Ram Singh. Our families from Nismes and Wales have always been a closely knit family unit and Ram Singh , myself and our deceased brother Harry are no exception as we share a special bond as the eldest boys in our family clan.

In 1968 Ram Singh and his family came to America to seek a better life for his family. he decided to study mechanic and earned himself a certificate as" Doctor of Mechanic"

After several months , he encourage me to join him in America.

Needless to say, I trusted his judgement and joined him and my beautiful Bhougie Raj in Queens New York. When I landed at JFK Airport they were both there to receive me with open arms.

Since our arrival in America , we always keep in touch with each other to find out how things are going. I was fortunate to be able to spend some quality time with Ram Singh and Bhougie at my sister's home in Claremont on the Sunday before he became ill..

My brother Ram Singh was a devoted man, he worked hard to make sure his family enjoys the best of what life has to offer.

Brother , you are no longer with us in flesh only, your love and spirit will live on with all of us forever..

Rest In Peace my Brother.

Love you forever

“ My Beloved Cousin.. RamSingh..

A couple weeks ago, our Almighty Lord guided you to spend one of your days here on earth with your cousin Jai Singh and his family at my house in Clermont, Fl. I know you have a lot of history with our brother being the first 2 boys in the family to be born and raised in Nismes. We had a beautiful day together eating, drinking, laughing and reminiscing about the good old days growing up in Guyana.

You ate stewed butterfish and hassa curry that day and had a couple of beers. I feel blessed that I was able to spend the day with you and Bougie. My brother ... as a young child, I have some fond and distinct memories of your wedding at Nismes. I was 14 years old and remembered when the crepe-paper-draped car pulled up and you and your beautiful bride came out of the car, indian music blasting on the duke box and people dancing to welcome you and your wife home. I believe I heard Red Red Wine (the Neil Diamond version) at your wedding for the first time. Here in America in 1974, I remembered when I first introduced you to my boyfriend at the time, Ronald, you questioned him about his family, his job, his education, his plans for me, etc, etc.. Ronald felt interrogated but understood that it was done out of love for his cousin. In March of 2019, we visited you at your farm in Ocala and watched how you enjoyed tending to the animals and livestock and how attached they were to you, especially that cute little Donkey, You were so happy to receive family at your farm but Covid 19 limited our visits. I will personally miss you my cousin.

On behalf of Ronald, myself and my family we extend our sincere condolences to Bougie Raj, the Children. Grandchildren, all our Nismes Cousins and their Families. May Lord Krishna give you all strength to get through this difficult time and may he welcome our Brother to Rest In Peace in his abode. Love you Buddy Ramsingh. You will be in my heart forever.
