

Ramdai "Pinky" Rudhee

February 5, 1945 - February 9, 2025

Ramdai Rudhee, 80, of Berbice, Guyana, passed away on February 9th peacefully in Ocala, FL.

Ramdai, also known as Pinky, was born on February 5th, 1945 in Berbice to Toon Toon and Bisnauth. She grew up in 71 Village.

She was known for kindness, hospitality, and love for sweets. Pinky dedicated her life to her family and friends, making a lasting impact on those around her. Pinky is survived by her daughters, Malini and Yogita, son-in-law, Max, grandchildren, Kevin and Nirvana, granddaughter-in-law, Nicole, and great-grandson, Isaiah, and her many nieces and nephews and their partners and children. She was preceded in death by her 13 brothers and sisters, and her many friends that she made along the way.

A funeral service and cremation will be held on February 16th and 17th at Roberts of Ocala West Chapel. The viewing will be taking place at 2pm on Sunday, and the cremation will happen at 9am on Monday.

The family wishes to express their gratitude to E.W. & Lucille Cates House, along with family friends, Lilly & Scott, Pamela & Vinny, Paola & Joe, Lisette & Edwin, Brandon, Ricardo, and the late Prea & Family. Pinky will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“This thing good, it nah too sweet.”

-Grandma
