“ I'm sorry to hear of Randy's passing. He was my rep for the Arnette House. What a great salesman, he would talk me into spending more then I had planned on. He loved his family and made me laugh , what a great smile. I know he is in a good place. I'm sorry I missed the service.

“ To Jodi, and the entire German Family, I was so sorry to read about Randys passing this morning in the paper. I know its been years since I last saw Randy, but I will never forget the wedding cake he made my wife and I for our wedding. I will always remember what a great guy Randy was, especially the impact he left on my parents. My thoughts, and prayers go out to the entire German family.

“ Lisa, I haven't seen you in 30-some years (Taft Middle School), but saw the name in the obit and had to express my sympathy. It looks like you had a lovely life with Randy and have two beautiful daughters to help you cope at this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Death sure is an enemy (1 Cor 15:26) but it will soon be done away with (Rev. 21:4). With much love, Elisa
